

ZL 108

Line Array Speaker with 120° × 40° Nominal Dispersion

Description

The ZL 108 is a line array speaker offering outstanding sound with a dispersion angle of 120° × 40° optimized for short to medium listening distances. It is used as a main speaker in high-quality home audio systems and as a front speaker in media rooms for listening distances of up to approx. 10 m. It can be used as a floor-standing speaker or mounted on the wall.

It can be operated both as a floor-standing and as a wall-mounted speaker. Through the employment of 9 very linear 2.5" full-range speakers plus a sophisticated 3-way crossover. This gives it a wide, linear frequency range and enables accurate, dynamic music reproduction. The ZL 108 can also reproduce speech very clearly, even in rooms with long reverberation times.

Thanks to its modular design, the ZL 108 can be combined with other models in the ZL series to create long arrays with corresponding directional characteristics for large rooms. We recommend using SUB 20 and SUB 40 subwoofers to enhance the low frequency range.
